Our cover subject is an indelible memory for many in Mattapoisett - Walsh's General Store on Church Street.

As in any exceptionally good general store, a shopper could find just about anything if he looked under or over enough other things. The building, located across from Center School and its bubble gum clientele, was torn down several years ago. This past week saw the passing of Ed Walsh, the gentle and infinitely patient proprietor. Mr. Walsh and his wife lived and gardened on Pearl Street until his death. He will be missed - and remembered.

Selectmen's Meeting

TOWN HALL RENOVATION REPORT

Architect Robert Humphrey and Building Inspector Jonathan DePina reported to Selectmen that an estimated $144,000 is required to repair the Town Hall and to make it more energy efficient. The energy saving portion of that amount is roughly 1/3 and would include a vapor barrier and cement floor for the cellar, new storm windows, attic insulation and venting, new gutters and chimney repair. The balance would be for exterior shingles. Mr. Humphrey said that two alternatives were considered for the exterior, either vinyl or natural shingles. He inclined toward the natural shingles which was the original covering when the building was built in 1896 at a total cost of $8000.

The Selectmen said that the energy saving part of the project should be done and would pay for itself. Selectman William Hubbard recommended that the whole project be sought since inflation continues to push the costs higher at an accelerating rate. An article will seek money for the job in the 1980 Town Warrant.

SELECTMEN WANT LAND

Harold Roeder, acting at Selectmen's direction, reported that he had acquired an independent land appraisal of the Nickerson property on Route 6, formerly the Burnham Nursery. The estimate by Owen Heleen Realty of New Bedford was $87,000 for the 5.77 acre tract. The proposal was defeated by the 1979 town meeting when presented with the price to be negotiated.

The Selectmen will seek voter approval of the land purchase with a view toward the building of a police/fire complex.

SEWER DELAY DEPLORED

George Heath asked Selectmen to take vigorous action to complete the tie-in to the Fairhaven sewer plant. He said that the sewer hook-ups in town can't wait much longer or they can't be accomplished until Spring of next year. Mr. Heath said that many people who are leaving for Florida want to complete the hook-up before they go. The Selectmen replied that according to information received from Fairhaven, the installation of a flow matcher control is all that is holding up the project and that was expected to arrive at any moment.

POLE LOCATIONS APPROVED

Selectmen approved a pole relocation on Brandt Island Road for the New Bedford Gas & Edison Light Company and a pole location on Hammond Street for the New Bedford Telephone Company following the public hearing held on October 16.

DECOSTA OFFICER OF COUNTY BOARD

Chairman John DeCosta reported to the Selectmen that he had been elected to the office of Secretary of the Plymouth County Board of Selectmen.

Selectmen received a letter from Tighe & Bond submitting plans and specifications for the proposed sewer extension on Pepperbush Lane. The recommendations for

In this issue of Presto Press we call your attention to two items of importance: first is our usual monthly ad showing trips planned for the Minibus for November, and second the new Guidelines for bus trips. Please cut both of these out and keep for future reference. You will note the explanation at the top paragraph of the Guidelines, and this paragraph also tells you that all reservations, or other information needed, can now be obtained at our office, Room 202, Town Hall, by a phone call or personal visit every weekday between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon. We are very happy to finally have a functioning Council on Aging office, and very pleased with our new Senior Aide, Amy Peters, whom many of you have already met. She already has a good grasp of her job, and, as she tells you, when she does not know the answer to your question, she will try to find out and let you know.

Cub Scout Pack 53

On October 7th the Pack meeting was opened by a ceremony, conducted by Den 3. Den 1 performed a skit (on the physical fitness theme) that was enjoyed by all.

Many Cubs had been busy over the summer and the achievement awards reflected this.

Silver Arrows were earned by Eric Bjerre, Brandon Garde, Michael Haley, and Tom Hiller.

Hunter Urion completed his Bear badge and a Gold Arrow in the Bear rank.

In the Webelos program, Rick Hiller received his Outdoorsman badge.

Six boys were inducted into Webelos and were awarded their Webelos colors during an impressive candlelight ceremony. They are Eric Bjerre, William Collins, Rick Hiller, Kevin Keene, Todd Middleton and Hunter Urion.

The meeting saw four leaders and seventeen boys receive their first year pins for having completed one full year in Cub Scouting. Also, two leaders and five Cubs received their second year awards.

Stone Age Revisited

WIN JENNEY PHOTOS

NEW STONE AGE TRIBE
DISCOVERED IN MATTAPOISETT

In the woods behind Old Hammondtown School a new Stone Age settlement has been discovered. It consists of two shelters made of twigs, tree trunks, leaves, pine needles, and vines. Also found were crude tools made from sticks and stones, pottery made from mud, and food (berries, mushrooms and nuts) gathered from the surrounding area.

When we interviewed the tribes, we learned that the members were actually sixth grade students at Old Hammondtown School. They had just completed a unit on Early Man and had discovered that, although life had been hard for these people, and although they had to learn by trial and error,

The boys competed against the girls and both groups realized that through cooperation, invention and government they, too, could build shelters using only the materials available to them in the woods. The pictures show the success of their venture.

Ski & Skate Sale

November 3rd is the date for Tabor Academy's second annual Ski and Skate Sale to be held in Hoyt Hall from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Skis, boots, skates, hockey equipment, outdoor winter clothing and much more will be sold on a consignment basis.

Items for sale will be received at the Hoyt Hall Gym on Thursday, November 1st, from 9:00 to 12:00 in the morning and again on Friday, November 2nd, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. Bring all your outgrown equipment then and workers will help you set prices and tag the items. Donors should plan to return to Hoyt Hall after the sale on Saturday (from 3 to 4 p.m.) to pick up unsold belongings and to claim a check for 60% of sold items. Tabor's Scholarship Fund will benefit from the other 40%.

An added feature of the sale this year will be a refreshment table with baked goods and coffee on sale for all. Quality sporting goods are expected in all shapes, colors, and sizes, especially in the ski and skate department where the turnover is high as little feet grow quickly.

So, mark the date on your calendar, and plan to outfit the whole family for winter sports to come.

For additional information call Tinker Saltonstall in the Student/Community Activities Office at Tabor (748-0590 Ext. 33).

Cross Country

The members of this year's girls' cross country team have proven themselves to be an excellent group of distance runners. This year's team is comprised of six girls who have demonstrated a willingness to work very hard and who have improved tremendously as the season has progressed.

The members of this year's team are: Denise Bradford, Debbie Cattley, Allyson Bradford, Shawn Hartley, Suzanne Xavier, and Lisa Ayotte. Denise and Debbie are the returning members of the team from a season ago; the other girls are newcomers.

As a group, this team is now to the point where they can challenge most teams in the area. All six girls will return next season which gives an indication of the potential strength of girls' cross country at Old Rochester in the future.

STANG LOCATING ALUMNI

Bishop Stang High School is currently undertaking the arduous task of locating some 4,000 alumni. Mailings are being sent to locations throughout the United States and even a few foreign countries; however many addresses are obsolete making the clerical effort something of a monumental task.

With the advent of the current school year a full time alumni office was set up within the school proper. Al Catelli, a 1966 graduate and public relations director at the Parochial school, has been given the job of coordinating the massive program.

Immediate plans include a 20th anniversary celebration Veterans' Day weekend, November 10 and 11, and a school and alumni newsletter to be published periodically throughout the year.

If you are an alumnus of Stang and have not been contacted yet you are asked to write or call the North Dartmouth school

Museum Auction

SALE/AUCTION BOSTON MUSEUM

When the Boston Children's Museum moved this summer from Jamaica Plain to its new waterfront site at Museum Wharf, it left behind a stuffed moose head, a parking meter, an Empire butler's desk, a mimeograph machine and a scale model of a Gothic cathedral.

All this and more goes on the block November 18 when the Museum stages Last Good-Buys, a sale and auction at the old museum site on the Jamaicaway.

It's a chance for everyone to bid farewell to the buildings that housed the museum from 1935 to early 1979 and to buy and bid on objects that are serious and funny, useful and useless: vintage furniture, plaster models of prehistoric monsters, a telephone switchboard from the 30's, WWII posters from England, a gigantic dollhouse, books and educational materials, darkroom supplies, unusual sea shells, American Indian baskets, miniatures, tourist dolls, museum memorabilia and treasures for children.

The sale is from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.; the auction starts at 1 p.m. with a preview from 10 - 12:30 p.m. Admission to the auction will be charged and catalogs will be available. Refreshments will be on sale all day.

Last Good-Buys is at the intersection of the Jamaicaway (Route 1) and Burroughs Street, Jamaica Plain.

ST. LUKE'S ADDS AUTOMATED EQUIPMENT TO LAB

St. Luke's Hospital has installed a DuPont Automatic Clinical Analyzer (ACA) in the Chemistry Laboratory that performs rapid and accurate chemical analyses of blood and body fluids on a 24 hour basis.

According to St. Luke's Associate Director, Terence G. Lewis, "the ACA represents a major advance for the hospital. It gives our laboratory the ability to provide sophisticated diagnostic tests day or night."

Dr. Harry D. Ainsworth, Chairman of St. Luke's Pathology Department, said that "chemical analyses of blood serum and other body fluids represent the largest group of clinical tests performed in our laboratory. The ACA enables us to replace most of the manual chemical analyses, and to run more tests with the same personnel. It allows us also to perform several tests in our lab that were previously sent out.

The instrument is especially beneficial in emergency cases because from the time the sample is introduced into the ACA the first test of the run is available in less than eight minutes."

At present the ACA allows a physician to select from a battery of 35 tests. As more tests become available, the instrument eventually will be programmed to perform 60 tests. The tests range from analysis of calcium levels to more complex procedures, such as analysis of the enzyme CPK used to detect heart attacks.

Dr. A. Curtis Nordgren, Associate Pathologist and Director of the Chemistry Division of the laboratory, concluded that the ACA, which is the only instrument of its type on the market, has demonstrated over a five-year period that it is innovative and cost effective.

"The ACA brings together all manual procedures previously done on five different instruments into one automated machine," Dr. Nordgren said. "It's also cost effective because it adds test capability without increasing personnel. Since it uses the latest chemical methods, test accuracy is greatly improved," he said.

Mrs. Joan Guertin (MT), Laboratory In-Service Coordinator, recently completed a series of training sessions on the operation and maintenance of the ACA. She will provide in-service training on the ACA to all 40 lab technicians.

improvements. In the light of today's high housing costs, home improvements not only preserve but increase the value of what constitutes a family's most important single asset," said Carpenter.

Recent meetings with both the Dartmouth Advisory Board of the Dartmouth Banking Center and the Center Street Advisory Board in Fairhaven have been helpful in keeping the bank in tune with specific needs of the areas served.

Fairhaven Savings is proceeding with its area-wide solicitation program of American Express Gold Card users.

George Bunnell, Jr., Treasurer and Vice President, reported that the Bank's deposits were at $116,646,042 as of September 30, 1979. Mortgage balances were $84,749,676 with other loan balances at $7,183,925. Bunnell indicated that the size of the Loan Portfolio vis a vis the overall deposit balance shows the bank's continued commitment as a community savings and lending institution.
